

2017-2018

- Only eight events are at the Powerhouse this year. Gustavo Romero (Oct.) and A.J. Croce (Jan.) will be at St. Peter's.
- Doors open at 6:30pm
- Wine and cheese: 6:30pm
- Event: 7:00-8:15pm
- Programs subject to change without notice

September 7 Lito and Celino Romero

The Third Generation of the Royal Family of Guitars. The program spans from Baroque to contemporary Spanish.

October 5 Gustavo Romero (at St. Peter's) - Piano

works by Enrique Granados including the complete Goyescas.

November 9 Mark Lessman Quartet

(Note: November 9 is the SECOND Thursday of November.)

An eclectic exploration of jazz & blues.

December 7 Westwind Brass

Celebrate the Season of Lights.

January 4 A. J. Croce (at St. Peter's)

Pop music iconoclast with deep roots in jazz-influenced blues.

first thursdays

February 1 Annette Gregory and Yoshika Masuda

American violinist and Japanese cellist present Handel/Halvorsen's Passacaglia and Gliere's 8 Pieces.

March 1 Josh White Trio

The Joshua White Trio presenting an evening of original music and arrangements.

April 5 Pierre-Yves Plat

Is he classical or jazz? Plat infuses his virtuosic piano music with a sense of crossover, mystery and always humor.

May 3 Laurie Lewis & the Right Hands

High-wire bluegrass/country/Americana from a 2017 Grammy-nominated Left Coast band.

June 7 Allison Adams Tucker & LA WANDERlust Band

World jazz with urbane cool driven songs that span countries and genres in 6 languages.

ACT TODAY!

Season tickets for First Thursdays ($175) sell out quickly each year!