

2023-2024

- All events are at Town Hall and are open to subscribers only.
- Doors open at 6:30pm.
- Wine and cheese: 6:30pm.
- Program: 7:00-8:15pm.
- Programs are subject to change without notice.

first thursdays

September 7
Prairie Sky

Pop hits and modern bluegrass featuring the powerhouse vocals of Jeff Smith and Ramona Ault.

October 5
Hausmann Quartet

Del Mar favorites return to First Thursdays with an exciting program of string quartet repertoire.

November 2
Gilbert Castellanos Quintet

A grand tour of jazz by renowned trumpeter Gilbert Castellanos and his quintet.

December 7
Camarada with Peter Sprague

A Charlie Brown Christmas: Jingles and Jazz, featuring Vince Guaraldi's A Charlie Brown Christmas, re-imagined and arranged by Peter Sprague.

January 4
The Eve Selis Band

California Dreamin': From Laurel Canyon to Nashville Originals.

February 1
Laurie Lewis and the Right Hands

Inspired "bluegrass and beyond" from a two-time International Bluegrass Vocalist of the Year and her sizzling band.

March 7
LP And The Vinyl

From Blues to Beatles to Bowie - LP and the Vinyl showcases renowned jazz and blues singer Leonard Patton teamed with the critically acclaimed Danny Green Trio.

April 4
Konstantin Soukhovetski

Original music and classics played by a true showman of the piano with a singular interpretive vision and natural virtuosity.

May 2
Daneen Wilburn

Vocal-driven blend of R&B, jazz and gospel, with an ensemble of seven featuring Kamau Kenyatta (producer, keys) and more.

June 6
Kate Hatmaker and Friends

An exciting evening of chamber music led by San Diego Symphony violinist Kate Hatmaker, founder of Art of Elan.

First Thursdays is open to subscribers only, and is fully subscribed each year. Act quickly if you wish to subscribe. www.delmarfoundation.org